

materials; or

(B) showing that the materials cited do not establish the absence or presence of a genuine dispute, or that an adverse party cannot produce admissible evidence to support the fact.

(2) Objection That a Fact Is Not Supported by Admissible Evidence. A party may object that the material cited to support or dispute a fact cannot be presented in a form that would be admissible in evidence.

(3) Materials Not Cited. The court need consider only the cited materials, but it may consider other materials in the record.

(4) Affidavits or Declarations. An affidavit or declaration used to support or oppose a motion must be made on personal knowledge, set out facts that would be admissible in evidence, and show that the affiant or declarant is competent to testify on the matters stated.

Fed.R.Civ.P. 56(c). This language means that if the plaintiff has any evidence to offer to show that there is a genuine issue for trial, plaintiff must now present it to this court in a form which would otherwise be admissible at trial, i.e., in the form of affidavits or unsworn declarations. An affidavit is a written statement under oath; that is, a statement prepared in writing and sworn before a notary public. An unsworn statement, made and signed under the penalty of perjury, may also be submitted. Affidavits or statements must be presented by plaintiff to this court within the time provided in this Order for a response and served on counsel for the moving party as evidenced in a certificate of service attached to plaintiff's response. Failure to respond may result in summary judgment being entered against plaintiff by reason of default.

The plaintiff is also advised of defendant's contention that Bissell Companies, Inc. may not be the proper party in this case. Def. Motion for Summary Judgment 1 (ECF #43). The court takes no position on this argument at this time. The pro se plaintiff is hereby provided further notice of this argument as well as the need to respond to the defendant's Motion currently before the court.

Given that this is a pro se plaintiff, plaintiff will be given additional time to respond to defendant's Motion for Summary Judgment (#43).

ORDER

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED that plaintiff has until, and inclusive of, November 3, 2016 to file and serve her response and any supporting exhibits, including affidavits, to defendant's Motion for Summary Judgment (#43).

Signed: October 12, 2016

Max O. Cogburn Jr.
United States District Judge
